OPNAV INSTRUCTION 1500.64C

From: Chief of Naval Operations
To: All Ships and Stations (less Marine Corps field addressees not having Navy personnel attached)
Subj: APPLICATION FOR ATTENDANCE AT THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION NATIONAL ACADEMY (FBINA)
Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 6110.1G Encl: (1) Sample Letter of Application for Attendance at the FBI National Academy
(2) Application to Attend FBI National Academy Program

1. Purpose. To provide application procedures for attendance at the FBI National Academy (FBINA). This instruction is a substantial revision and should be read in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 1500.64B.

3. Background. The FBINA offers an 11-week program of advanced professional law enforcement instruction emphasizing leadership development for eligible Navy law enforcement and security personnel and Department of the Navy civilians at Quantico, VA. Further information can be found at <http://www.fbi.gov/hq/td/academy/na/na.htm>.

4. Discussion. The Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NAVCRIMINSERV), as the Navy program manager for law enforcement/security policy and training, is responsible for the administration of U.S. Navy participation at the FBINA.

5. Eligibility Requirements

a. Be a U.S. citizen.

6 Jan 04

- b. Be at least 25 years of age.
- c. Be free of physical disabilities and in excellent physical condition, capable of sustained exertion and regular participation in the use of firearms, physical training and defensive tactics. This shall be confirmed by a thorough physical examination (with EKG treadmill exercise) performed by a medical officer/doctor.
- d. Meet height/ weight and body fat standards as established by reference (a).
- e. Possess a high school diploma or a high school equivalency certificate. College credits are desired.
- f. Be of outstanding character and reputation, having demonstrated unimpeachable moral conduct and integrity.
- g. Have no convictions by courts-martial/civil courts or be currently under charges for any felony violation. A felony is defined as any offense punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year, but does not include any offense classified as a misdemeanor by a State and punishable by a term of imprisonment of 2 years or less.
- h. Have no convictions by courts-martial/civil courts or be currently under charges for any offenses not included in paragraph 5g, exclusive of minor traffic violations, for the past 10 years. Also be free from non-judicial punishment for the past 5 years.
- i. Be in pay grades E-7 to E-9, W-2 to WA, O-1 to O-5, or GS-9 to GS-13.
- j. Have a minimum of 10 years of continuous active military or civilian service, with a minimum of 5 years continuous law enforcement/security experience.
- k. Have a minimum of 2 years obligated military service remaining after completion of FBINA course of instruction. A Page 13 entry reflecting this obligation will be executed upon acceptance of these orders. If civilian, agree in writing, prior to attending, to continue employment with the Navy in a law enforcement/security capacity for a period of 3 years from the date of graduation.

l. Have genuine interest in law enforcement/security as it pertains to the naval service, a seriousness of purpose, qualities of leadership, the confidence and respect of one's peers and a demonstrated high potential for outstanding future service to the Navy.

m. Have satisfactorily performed in a supervisory capacity and be assigned or enroute, to a supervisory law enforcement/security billet.

n. Possess the ability to communicate effectively in the English language, both orally and in writing.

o. Posses a secret clearance based on a completed special background investigation. No interim clearance will be accepted.

6. Application Procedures

a. All Navy law enforcement or civilians who meet the criteria for attendance and desire to attend the FBINA course of instruction, are to submit applications (enclosures (1) and (2)) via their chain of command to the Director, Naval Criminal Investigative Service (DIR, NAVCRIMINSERV) (Code 21), 716 Sicard St. SE, Suite 2000, Washington, DC 20388-5384.

b. Applications will be accepted no earlier than 1 March and no later than 30 March of the calendar year. Applicants will be considered for the following calendar year class quotas. This will allow NAVCRIMINSERV to program the funding for the next year.

c. Applications will not be held over for consideration for subsequent boards. Those applicants desiring consideration must resubmit an application each year in accordance with this instruction.

d. During the year, should an applicant no longer meet the eligibility requirements, or be brought under investigation, commanding officers will notify the DIR, NAVCRIMINSERV (Code 21) of the issue and make a recommendation regarding the suitability for attendance to the FBINA as a representative of the U. S. Navy.

6 Jan 04

7. Selection Procedures. Selections will be conducted each April by a panel composed of senior military and civilian law enforcement/security professionals. Formal nominations of those selected will be forwarded to the FBINA by DIR, NAVCRIMINSERV. Final approval to attend the Academy is dependent upon an FBI background investigation and interview. Once the FBI invites a Navy nominee to attend, the command/activity and the member selected will be notified and reporting instructions forwarded.

8. Travel and Per Diem. NAVCRIMINSERV will bear the cost of per diem transportation to and from the FBINA and miscellaneous cost for which the applicant would be entitled to as reimbursement. Lodging and meals are provided by the Academy. Accounting data and directions for monthly claim liquidation processing will be provided as part of the notification package.
